VOLUME CVI.---NO. 164. ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 13, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

TIRED OUT.

There's many a wife sits in the growing shadows of an evening, knowing what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But if healthy she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. She feels acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves.

Sick women, hundreds of thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I am pleased to inform you of the benefit I received from using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Elizabeth A. Oswold, of 45 Brant Street, Windsor, Essex Co., Ontario, Canada. "Was quite discouraged when I wrote asking your advice, as the physicians here told me I could get no relief except by an operation. Suffered for four years from irregular and profuse menstruation, had sick and nervous headaches most of the time, and at times could hardly walk across the floor from weakness. I thank God there is such a remedy as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for suffering women. Before I had taken the first bottle the headaches had left me and it was not long before regularity was established and still continues so. Have just finished house-cleaning which I never expected to be able to do again, and can truly say I never felt better than at present. I gladly recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all who suffer from female weakness. It has cured me and made me stronger in every way. Neither my husband nor myself can say enough in its praise."

The selfish seller who urges some substitute is thinking of the larger profit he'll make and not of your best good.

TO CURE ANY DISEASE.

The Cause Must be Removed, Same Way With Dandruff.

Kill the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair and baldness, you will have no more dandruff, and your hair must grow luxuriantly. Newbro's Herpicide not only contains the dandruff germ destroyer, but it is also a most delightful hair dressing for regular toilet use. No other hair preparation is on this scientific basis of destoying the dandruff germs. It stops all irritation, keeps the scalp sweet, pure and wholesome. Remember that something claimed to be "just as good," will not do the work of genuine Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size.

WHOLESALE MURDER.

One of the most shocking stories of murder, with robbery as the motive, in the annals of crime was brought to New Orleans yesterday by Capt Hans Holm, of the Norwegian fruiter Bratten, which plies between New Orleans and Honduran ports. It was subsequently confirmed by the officers of the fruit steamer Rosina, which came in later in the evening with additional details.

The little island of Utilla, lying off the Honduran coast, whose population is an indiscriminate mixture of whites, Caymanites, and Caribs, was the scene of the tragedy, in which twelve lives were sacrificed. The captain of the little trading schooner Olympia was about to make a trip to Ruatan, Truxillo, and Belize. He had about $1,400, and was to buy cattle at Truxillo to sell at Belize. She carried a crew of four and quite a number of passengers, making the total list of people aboard number thirteen. Among these were two women and two children.

The vessel left the harbor of Utilla at 11 o'clock Friday night, June 30, and after she had been under way less than an hour everybody was aroused by a shot, and, rushing on deck, found a negro, armed with a Winchester rifle, shooting down the men one after another. This negro was Robert McGill, and, as it afterward developed, he had stowed himself away aboard with the intention of robbing the captain and then swimming ashore. After he had killed all but one of the men, he ordered the last survivor to go below and scuttle the ship. When the unfortunate man reappeared on deck and reported the negro shot him dead.

He then put the two women, Miss Elsie Morgan and her sister, Mrs. Walter Rose, in the dory, with Mrs. Rose's six-weeks-old infant, and left the vessel, steering for the mainland. He changed his mind about allowing the women to live, and killed Mrs. Rose and her infant. Then he began shooting at Miss Morgan and wounded her in the arm. She jumped overboard and started to swim back to the island.

He fired at her ineffectually, but his ammuniton evidently gave out, for he promised her immunity from harm if she would come back to the dory. She started back, and when within an oar's length, he struck her on the head with an oar, stunning her. Believing she was dead he rowed away toward the main. land.

Miss Morgan swam back to the island, where she was thrown on the beach by the waves in an exhausted condition. She feared that the negro would follow her, so she hid in the bushes, and for two days suffered from the heat and exposure, until found by a woman from her neighborhood and rescued from starvation.

In the meantime the dory had been washed ashore, and there was excitement on the island, and it was believed the Olympia had gone down with all hands. When Miss Morgan told her story, an immediate search was instituted for McGill, and the authorities on the mainland were notified.

They caught him at El Portvinir, a little town on the road to Celba, and there was quite a demonstration, but he was protected. His life was saved through the presence on the coast of President Bonila, who was on an inspection tour. The Honduran warship La Tumbia, which has figured in so many revolutions was brought into service and the murderer placed aboard and sent back to the island.

Up to last Sunday he was still alive, though it is firmly believed that he will be tortured to death. The laws of Honduras prohibit capital punishment, but the people will take the case into their own hands.

Miss Elsie Morgan, the only survivor of the terrible experience, visited New Orleans three years ago, and is a well-educated, refined young woman of twenty-five years.

BATTLE WITH OUTLAWS.

C. S. Calhoon, of Kansas City, an Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway detective, was shot and instantly killed at Cedarvale, Kansas, by two outlaws, who were shot down later by a posse of citizens at Hewins, seven miles from Cedarvale. One of the outlows, "Ed." Madigan, of Pence City, Oklahoma, was killed instantly by the posse. The other, William Chadburn, of Winfield, was fatally wounded. The outlaws exchanged shots with the posse, and J. M. Pope, a merchant, was shot through the foot and a woman named Malone was struck in the leg by a stray bullet.

Madigan and Chadburn held up and robbed six traveling men at the Brettun Hotel at Winfield on Sunday night last, and escaped.

At Cedarvale Tuesday night Detective Calhoon encountered both of the outlaws on the streets. Not being positive of their identification, Calhoon secured the City Marshal and one of the traveling men who had been robbed, and started in a carriage in search of the outlaws.

Early yesterday the party drove past the men in a side street. The traveling man identified them, and the trio in the carriage was just in the act of making a stand when either Madigan or Chadburn opened fire. Calhoon was shot through the heart and the outlaws made their escape temporarily, as the marshal and the traveling man, taken by surprise, were unable to fire a single shot in return. The town was quickly aroused. The outlaws stole two horses and started for Hewins. While a posse was gathering at Cedarvale, word was wired ahead to Hewins, where the Deputy Sheriff summoned a posse of 20 armed men. Within 2 hours the outlaws rode up to a hardware store at Hewins, secured a rifle and a revolver, and started out of town at a gallop.

Just as Madigan and Chadburn were leaving the main street the posse opened fire from the windows of a store. The robbers returned the fire and a lively fusillade ensued. Finally Madigan fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Another bullet soon brought Chadburn to the ground, he being shot through the abdomen.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chadburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Both men were under 30 years of age. Chadburn has served time in the Kansas penitentiary for robbery, but nothing is known of Madigan.

Sickening Shivering Fits

of Ague and Malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to Quinine, having none of this drug's bad after-effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes. "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons drug store; price 50c. guaranteed.

The pills that act as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers, They cure Headache, Constipation, Billousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley, N. D., says: "Two bottles of these Famous Little Pills cured me of chronic constipation.' Good for either children or adults. Sold by W. F. Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 13, 1905.

HAGERSTOWN, MD., is to have a curfew law, and all children under fifteen years of age, except when sent on errands or in company with parents or guardians, are to be kept off the streets after ten o'clock at night in summer and nine in winter. The law is to be rigidly enforced and parents or guardians in any way responsible for its infraction are to be fined. Numbers of cities at times have been forced to make similar laws or to contemplate such measures for the public good. It seems strange that many parents fail to see the evil which is sure to result by turning their children loose in the streets until a late hour in the night, when they are sure to encounter evil influences which make their impress upon them for life. There is always a certain percentage of men in every city (that is men in statue but not in mind) who consort almost exclusively with boys. They are preceptors for youngsters and the latter, apt scholars as they are, listen, to conversations debauching to their minds if they fail to acquire lessons more baneful. Parents become oblivious to these facts until a child by some thoughtless act stands charged with some grave offense, and then attention is directed to the truths suggested above. If youngsters escape the more direful consequences of associating with older professionals, they generally lose pride in themselves and enter manhood with no other ambition than to be members of scorner gatherings, often regardless of their personal appearance, with stinted intelligence and a total inability to enter into conversation calculated to interest or edify any one. Such conditions apply to Alexandria as well as to numerous other places. There is not a neighborhood in which men, some old enough to be grandfathers, are not acting the part of "King Bees" and leaving their impress upon the younger generation. Such people are loading themselves with responsibilities for which they will be called upon to answer if not in this world in that which is to come. It is hoped parents having the welfare of their little ones at heart will act upon the hints given above, and that it will be unnecessary to enact curfew laws in Alexandria; also that the police will see that a certain class of men are kept moving at nights and not allowed to attract younger people around them at street corners and other places.

THE LATEST phase of the Equitable insurance scandal presents Senator Depew, of New York, in anything but a favorable light. It is disclosed that an "improvement company," which made Senator Depew a present of $100,000 in its shares for the use of his valuable name, at the same time borrowed $250,000 from the Equitable, of which he is a director. Senator Depew denies that he helped to secure the loan, but acknowledged that the managers came to him first in regard to the matter, and that he favored the loan in the directory of the company. In view of the revelations just made the New York World says, "It is seemly to suggest that when the Senate shall again convene Chauncey M. Depew, of New York, and John F. Dryden, of New Jersey, should pair with Joseph R. Burton, of Kansas, and John H. Mitchell, of Oregon." Of the loan, the Philadelphia Record well says:

It is no rash assumption that the Equitable, loose as it was in its finances, would not have made this loan if the company had not borne the name of Depew, and if he had not been at the same time an Equitable director. The loan to the Depew Improvement Company was not repaid, and all the Equitable has to show for it is a mortgage on lands not worth half the amount. When Senator Depew received an annual salary of $20,000 for hypothetical legal advice to the Equitable it was quite natural that he should vote to raise the snalry of an Equitable official to $100,000 a year. Thus one good turn deserves another. There is a loud demand on the part of many policy holders of the Equitable for Senator Depew's resignation as one of its directors. All the facts in the case demonstrate the reasonableness of this demand. The question is whether he ought not also to resign his seat in the United States Senate.

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS against Edwin S. Holmes, the former Assistant Statistician of the Department of Agriculture, who reaped a fortune by disposing of advance information concerning the crop reports to speculators, are to be instituted by the Department of Justice. Solicitor General and Acting Attorney General Hoyt have decided that Holmes and his associates, or at least all of them who used secret information obtained for the government to make money for themselves in the stock market, can be reached by the law. United States District Attorney Beach, acting under instructions from Mr. Hoyt, has already begun an investigation, which it is believed will result in the indictment of Holmes and others. Mr. Beach will be assisted by officers of the Secret Service and by men who were instrumental in bringing some of the post office grafters to justice. His instructions are to follow every lead that promises information concerning the operations of Holmes, or of others in the Department, contrary to the interests of the public and the government. This should mean a complete investigation of the whole crop-reporting machinery of the Department of Agriculture and any other bureaus of the department against which suspicion is directed.

IN SENTENCING Emil H. Neumer, an Equitable Life Assurance Society clerk, to the Elmira Reformatory for complicity in the robbery of a policy from the Equitable Company's vaults, Justice Foster, in New York, yesterday took occasion to make sarcastic but just comment on certain phases of the recent scandal in the Equitable by comparing the crime of Neumer with methods of officials high in the Equitable. Judge Foster said:

Your methods were very crude and bungling. If you had, instead of collusion with an outsider, colluded with an insider and thereby had your salary raised to $50,000 and then divided with the other man, the result would not have been more hurtful to policyholders, but possibly you would not have been at the bar of justice.

THE KNIGHTS OF HONOR havd discovered that, like the Royal Arcanum, they have been selling insurance too cheap, and marked up the price. Now, suggests the Philadelphia Record, if the old line companies will institute a few reforms in the interest of their policy holders they may be able to reduce their charges for insurance, and the rates of the two classes of companies may get pretty close together.

WITH THE first of July the anti-cigarette law, passed by the last session of the Wisconsin Legislature, went into operation. Since then the sale or gift of cigarettes by one person to another is a misdemeanor punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both. Already test charges are under way.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., July 13.

Ambassador Meyer has reported officially to the State Department that M. Witte has been appointed the chief peace plenipotentiary in place of Count Muravieff, resigned. M. Witte will sail from Cherboug July 25 and expects to arrive here August 1. The news of the appointment of M. Witte has been received here with favor in official circles. The Japanese legation views the selection as auguring strongly for peace. M. Witte is referred to in complimentary terms as a statesman, who has the confidence of his government and a man whose judgment would receive the consideration in Russia necessary for the successful execution of the negotiations. M. Witte was strongly opposed to the war with Japan. He urged that Russia should withdraw from Manchuria and should keep the solemn pledges which she had made to the powers that she would do so. It will be recalled that Russia set various dates for the withdrawal of her troops from Manchuria and as each date arrive she found some excuse for retaining them there. M. Witte protested against this flagrant breach of faith, which was principally responsible for the outbreak of the war, and he expressed himself so vigorously on the subject that he had to resign his position of Minister of Finance because of it. He has occupied various important positions since but has been thrust out of each on account of his severe criticisms of the bureaucy and of its conduct of the war. He is well acquainted with the actual situation of affairs in the far East and will undoubtedly prove an acceptable negotiator to Japan, besides being a strong advocate of the best interests of Russia.

The Panama Canal Commission received a cable report today from Gov. Magoon announcing that there were no additional cases of yellow fever on the isthmus. The recovery of Miss Margaret Gillick, was also reported.

The Bureau of Forestry under the legislation enacted by Congress last winter is to be known henceforth as "The Forest Service." Control and administration of the reserves, formerly in the hands of the General Land Office, are now with the Forest Service, the transfer having been made last February. The studies of the service will be extended as occasion suggests, and all the varied interests dependent upon the preservation of the woodlands will be conserved.

A report from the Bureau of Manufacturers, Census Office, shows that in Maryland in 1905 there are 3942 manufacturing establishments against 3974 in 1900, a decrease of 2½ per cent. Invested capital however has increased from $150,645,919 in 1900 to $201,208,689 in 1905, while products have increased from $214,626,741 to $242,056,278. Wages paid have increased 11½ per cent. Only concerns producing more than $500 a year are counted.

The War Department today announced the approval by the President of the sentence of dismissal from the army in the case of Maj. Frank DeL. Carrington, 1st Infantry, who was convicted by courtmartial in the Philippines for misappropriation of public funds. Carrington is under a sentence of sixty years imprisonment inflicted by the civil courts in the Philippines for the same offense. The President has also approved the sentence of dismissal in the case of Lieut. Augustus C. Hart, 10th Cavalry, convicted of duplicating his pay accounts.

The Department of Agriculture will likely be made the subject of at least two independent investigations, not to mention the inquiry conducted by secret service agents which resulted in the dismissal of Edwin S. Holmes, jr., the associate statistician. The Department of Justice will made additional research to add if possible to the documents and information already obtained from Secretary Wilson in connection with the Holmes case. Secretary Wilson feels the opprobrium that recent disclosures have cast upon his branch of the government service. He has also had his confidence shaken in a man whom he trusted. Despite his expressed belief that the evil has been eradicated by Holmes's separation from the service, Secretary Wilson, it is believed, will succumb to the popular demand for a house cleaning in the department. It has been suggested to him that he pursue the course adopted in the postoffice investigation when a subordinate officer was authorized to investigate everything. In order to place every facility at the command of the Department of Justice in the investigation of the cotton leak scandal, the Secretary of Agriculture has assigned a room adjoining his own for the use of District Attorney Beach. In this room the District Attorney will have access to all the records of the department, and the privilege of examining officials of the Bureau of Statistics and other employes of the department who may be able to throw light on the subject. The secretary stated this morning that he had received no orders from the President respecting the conduct of the investigation, and reiterated that everything done had been on his (the secretary's) initiative.

Frank L. Harvey, the well-known contractor, died at an early hour this morning at his home in this city.

News of the Day.

The new Japanese loan of $150,000,000 was over-subscribed many times wherever offered yesterday, in Europe and in this country.

Chairman Morton has begun reducing expenses in the Equitable by ordering a cut of from 10 to 20 per cent in all salaries over $2,500.

President Roosevelt is said to be incensed at the delay in arresting Associate Statistician Holmes. District Attorney Beach has begun the thorough investigation of the entire Bureau of Statistics.

The board of directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, which met yesterday, declared a semi-annual dividend of 2½ per cent on the common stock and thus placed the stock on a 5 per cent basis, making it the greatest dividend that the road has declared since the reorganization.

Morris K. Jessup, the New York banker, has contributed $25,000 to the fund which Commander Peary needed to fit out the Roosevelt. A similar amount had already been subscribed by others. This money will be used for supplies, and it is likely that the Roosevelt will get away the latter part of this week.

By the collapse of the People's United States Bank, of St. Louis, the 65,000, stockholders scattered throughout every State and territory of the Union will lose more than $600,000, even if the greatest expectations of the receiver, Mr. Spencer, as to the values of the bank's securities are realized.

Announcement is made that the large structure which is now being completed at Georgetown College, under the name of the New South Building, contributed by an anonymous donor, is to be known as the Ida M. Ryan Hall, and that the $125,000 necessary to build it was donated by Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan, the wife of the New York financier.

That $65,000 position that led John F. Wallace to resign his post as chief engineer of the Panama canal and led Secretary Taft to characterize the resignation having been actuated by "mere lucre," was an offer from the Westinghouse interests in Pittsburg to join in a project for the purchasing and building of trolley lines in several interurban street railway systems.

A story of wholesale execution at the little village of Taiklu, 100 miles inland from Fusan, Korea, has been brought to San Francisco by Rev. E. F. McFarland, a missionary who came home on the steamer Korea. In less than a week 60 men, charged with being bandits and cutthroats, were hanged by order of the Japanese government. A party of Korean soldiers were the executioners.

Information was received yesterday at the offices of the Southern Railway in Washington that four trestles between Rhodo and Andrews, N. C., on the Mercer branch of that road, had been washed away and that a passenger train was standing in a tunnel with the trestles on each side washed away. Workmen were at once sent to the scene to repair the trestles in order that the train might proceed.

Five hundred Chinese were drowned as a result of the collapse of an overcrowded mat shed on the banks of the West river, near Canton, recently. Outside Szui City, northwest of Canton, a large gathering had assembled to witness the dragon boat festival. Dense crowds flocked to a mat shed built over the river. The structure gave way and precipitated all into the river. A few saved themselves, but the others were drowned.

At Buffalo, yesterday, it was decided that the next reunion of the Elks would be held in Denver. About 50,000 Elks marched in the parade yesterday in a drizzling rain. The marchers were garbed in uniforms of startling colors and unique designs, and with gorgeously decorated floats and trophies of surprising and amusing character, combined to make the parade the most picturesque ever held in the history of the city.

A thorough investigation is to be made by District Attorney Jerome, of New York, to find out if the well known men and women who put up $500 for "America's Smart Set," published by the Society Editors' Association, did so legitimately or were blackmailed into it. This will be done in order to get more evidence against Charles H. Ahle, a solicitor for the Society Editors' Association, who is charged with having attempted to extort $500 out of Edwin M. Post, of the Stock Exchange.

Confession of a Minister.

Rev. A. A. Kelly, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Salem, W. Va., and statistical secretary of the West Virginia conference, has withdrawn from the ministry and the church, and has abandoned his wife and four small children, leaving for parts unknown, because of a scandal which has wrecked his family.

The State's Industrial School for Girls is located at Salem, and several months ago Margaret Evans, one of the inmates, was allowed to take employment at the parsonage as a cook. The pastor's wife soon discovered that her husband and the Evans girl were unduly intimate. She accused Kelly and he confessed. The girl was returned to the home and the matter was kept quiet till a few days ago, when the girl told the matron of the school. She sent for Kelly, who also confessed to her that he had had improper relations with the girl. He then turned over his charge to the presiding elder, withdrew from the ministry and the church, and took the first train for the West. His wife and four little ones, all under twelve years old, have gone to the home of Kelly's father, near Spencer.

Virginia News.

W. D. Jenkins, money order clerk in Portsmouth, and a negro mail carrier have been suspended, accused of irregularities.

Mrs. Fannie W. Cammack, wife of Robt. Cammack, died at her home near Sunlight, in Spottsylvania county, Tuesday morning last. She was fifty years old.

The flour mills in Carroll county, owned by A. W. Westmoreland & Sons, were burned Sunday night by an incendiary. The man has been arrested and has confessed the crime.

The continuous rains are not only causing the grain to sprout in the shock, but are also playing havoc with the fruit ripening on the trees. Damage by the washing of lands is also serious. The railroads throughout the State are having much trouble in keeping the roadbeds in repairs.

Five hard falls, two horses smashed up, probably ruined, one nose broken, and a most sensational runaway, furnished the excitement for the first day of the horse show at Fredericksburg yesterday. A well-known horse-man in his automobile, when the show grounds were shut to exclude him, ordered his chaffeuer to break them down by running his machine against them. The gates were demolished and the Fredericksburg police arrested every occupant of the motor car. The owner paid ten dollars fine for each person, and the case was dismissed.

France and England.

Former Foreign Minister Delcasse, in the course of an interview published by the Paris Gaulois yesterday on the British and French naval amenities at Brest, was induced to discuss his general policy relative to Great Britain and Germany. He said:

"The policy of nations nowadays is not based on sentiment or antipathy, but on their material interests. As between Germany and Great Britain our commercial balance shows where our interests lie. Britain is our best purchaser while Germany buys almost nothing of us and tries to sell us all she can. Moreover it is evident that we could not leave open irritating controversies with Great Britain which might precipitate an armed struggle, for Great Britain holds indisputably the empire of the seas. For every warship we build she builds four or five. It is therefore well to accept these manifest facts and consider the value which British co-operation would give us in certain eventualities.

"The greatest intrinsic value of such co-operation would be the virtual impossibility in which it would place Germany of making war on us."

M. Delcasse was asked if he considered the recent menaces in connection with Morocco as being serious. He replied:

"Not at all. In case of war Great Britain would be surely with us against Germany, and then what would the infant fleet of Germany amount to? What would become of her ports, of her commerce, of her merchant marine? It would mean annihilation. That is the real significance of the present exchange of visits of the British and French squadrons. An understanding between these two powers and a coalition of their navies would create a naval war machine so powerful that neither Germany nor any other power would risk conclusions upon the sea. It is the sea which it is necessary to command today, and the war in the far East has conclusively demonstrated that."

Royal Arcanum.

Definite form was given to the opposition to the new assessment rates adopted by the Supreme Council of the Royal Arcanum of the United States in Philadelphia yesterday, when representatives of numerous councils of Pennsylvania and New Jersey met in the Continental Hotel, in that city, and mapped out a vigorous campaign.

So great has been the indignation aroused by the raising of the assessment that the present fight will not cease, even if the Supreme council rescinds their action. It was declared yesterday that an investigation will be demanded in order that the membership might learn the true reason for the raising of the assessments. Insinuations were made that the high-salaried officials of the order who advocated the increase have not given a satisfactory explanation of their stand. The members seem to believe that high finance has something to do with the enormous increase. "Maybe there is a 'Mr. Hyde' somewhere," said one member.

The movement started in Philadelphia is in sympathy with similar action being taken by councils in all parts of the United States. The object of these movements is to have grand councils of the various States demand a special meeting of the Supreme Council for the purpose of having the old form of assessment again put in force.

Virginia Farmers.

The second annual meeting of the State Farmers' Institute convened at Roanoke yesterday with several hundred leading farmers from all sections of the State in attendance.

The meeting was called to order by the president, ex-Governor J. Hoge Tyler. Mayor Joel H. Cutchin, of Roanoke, delivered an address of welcome, and this was responded to by Major John T. Cowan, of Montgomery county, and Hon. Charles D. Heater, of Middleton. At the conclusion of the opening formalities, ex-Governor Tyler delivered the president's annual address.

He said that agricultural colleges, experimental stations, agricultural departments, farmers' clubs and farmers' institutes are to the farmer fountains of knowledge. The man whose very livelihood depends upon the yield of the soil cannot dive into the mysteries of scientific agriculture and study them out himself. The knowledge which has been derived from experiment stations, test farms, etc., must be determined by direct means brought to the farmer's own door, and for such a purpose the farmers' institute had been formed,

A number of interesting addresses on various farming questions were made.

Good for Stomach Trouble and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done me a great deal of good," says C. Towns, of Rat Portage, Ontario, Canada. "Being a mild physic the after effects are not unpleasant, and I can recommend them to all who suffer from stomach disorder." For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Today's Telegraphic News

Peace Prospects.

St. Petersburg, July 13.—The selection of M. Witte as Russia's ranking peace plenipotentiary in place of M. Muravieff, is regarded here as the best evidence which has yet been given that the Czar is really ready for peace. M. Witte's views favoring an immediate cessation of hostilities are too well known to leave any doubt in the minds of officials here that active steps will be taken toward bringing the war to a close, when the peace commissioners actually get together. In liberal circles, accordingly, there is the greatest rejoicing over the selection of the man who is virtually the leader of the peace party. This joy, however, is somewhat alloyed by the fact that there is to be another delay in the convoking of a national assembly. All Russia has been looking forward to the promulgation of the decree calling the assembly together, as it is believed that something will really be accomplished, then, toward securing the reforms which are in such great demand.

So much is expected of the national assembly that every delay is regarded with suspicion. In view of the fact that so many postponements have occurred since the Czar gave his absolute promise that an assembly would be called this is not to be wondered at. Accordingly, the announcement that there is to be another delay has produced anything but a favorable impression.

This time the postponement is to allow the council ministers to go over the plans of the commission headed by M. Bouligan, the minister of the interior, which prepared a draft of the proposed assembly. The scheme is to be carefully reviewed, it is announced, and it is probable that some revision of the plans will result.

The only hope held out to those who are building such high hopes on the assembly in this new delay is contained in a hint that the purpose of the Bouligan plans is to really revise the plan for the assembly, placing it on a more liberal basis.

Charges Against Cossacks.

Lodz, Poland, July 13.—The authorities have made the discovery that during the recent troubles here which resulted in so much bloodshed, when troops and Cossacks fired on the people, the Cossacks who were used to quell the disturbances, systematically plundered the civilians. In many cases the Cossacks went so far as to murder their victims to conceal their misdeeds. When reports in regard to the outrages committed by Cossacks were first made General Shuttleworth, commandant of the Lodz garrison, ordered a search to be made of the quarters occupied by the Cossacks. This resulted in the discovery of a large quantity of jewelry, watches, and money, the plunder of the Cossacks. The authorities have decided not to make any attempt to return this property to the real owners, fearing that if the facts in regard to the wholesale robbery of the people became known another riot will result.

Reception of Russian Ambassador.

Oyster, Bay, N. Y., July 13.—President Roosevelt received the new Ambassador from Russia, Baron Romanovitch Rosen, at Sagamore Hill, this afternoon. The naval yacht Sylph brought the Ambassador down from New York under the personal escort of Assistant Secretary of State Peirce. After the exchange of felicitations, Ambassador Rosen took luncheon with the President and Mrs. Roosevelt. Kermit and Ethel Roosevelt left on the 8:10 train for New York today. They will spend the day visiting relatives in the city. Secretary Loeb starts on his vacation Sunday. In company with Mrs. Loeb, he expects to travel to the Teetin Mountain country south of Yellowstone Park, and will there spend about a month fishing. At the Yellowstone Mr. and Mrs. Loeb will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Childs, who will go on with them to the Teetins.

Alleged Dynamite Plot.

London, July 13.—The Daily Telegraph publishes a dispatch from its correspondent at Vienna saying that private letters received in Vienna from St. Petersburg say that the police have discoverrd a plot to blow up the castle of Ilinskoj, near Moscow, where the Czar and imperial family had planned to stop during the coming visit of the Emperor to that city. It is reported that 250 pounds of dynamite were found in a cellar connecting by a subterranean passage with a room directly under the apartments which had been set apart for the Czar's use. Many arrests of persons suspected of being connected with the plot have been made, including two engineers who had charge of the cleaning and preparation of the apartments of the castle. The Czar is reported to have given up the idea of staying at Ilinskoj since the discovery of the plot.

Failure of Turbine Steamer.

Halifax, N. S., July 13.—The effort of the new Allan line turbine steamer Virginian to make a new record for landing mails from England resulted in failure on this trip. The vessel, which sailed from Moville on July 7, met much fog and many icebergs while crossing the Grand Banks, which caused her to proceed at reduced speed. The Virginian was 19 hours behind the schedule which had been arranged. The cruiser Canada met the Virginian off the coast of Cape Breton at 8 o'clock this morning and after taking aboard her mails and passengers proceeded for Sydney, Cape Breton. The Virginian continued on to Montreal.

Demands of Socialists.

Warsaw, Poland, July 13.—A demand is being made upon property owners by the socialists that rents of flats in all parts of the city shall be reduced 20 per cent. Committees from the socialist organization have waited upon many landlords to present this demand. Some owners who refused to listen to the demand of the committees were placed in large bags and carried down to the court yards where they were severely beaten. The socialists are also directing their attention to the tenants and have compelled many of them to sign pledges not to pay more for their flats and houses than the socialists think is a reasonable price.

Spoiled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th St., New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

The Market.

Georgetown, July 13.—Wheat 85@90.

Disorder in Chamber of Deputies.

Paris, July 13.—There was a scene of great disorder in the Chamber of Deputies today during the discussion of the bill granting amnesty to those condemned by the high court in connection with the revolutionary conspiracy of 1899. The bill was passed by the Senate on Tuesday, and came before the Chamber today.

In the course of a speech on the bill, Deputy Lasies made a violent attack upon former Minister of War Andre. M. Javres, socialist, and M. Brisson, a radical socialist, at once arose to make a protest, saying that under the present circumstances, amnesty should not be voted to the political exiles.

The excitement occasioned by these speeches was greatly increased when M. Berteaux, the Minister of War, announced that he withdrew his signature from the amnesty project.

The Chamber was in an uproar a moment, and quiet was only restored by President Doumer, who put on his h and thus adjourned the sitting.

Premier Rouvier, who was not in the Chamber when the outbreak came, was hurriedly summoned but did not arrive until after the session had been adjourned. A meeting of the council of Ministers was called immediately by the Premier, presumably to discuss the matter. In the lobbies it is reported that Premier Rouvier, is determined to propose an amnesty bill on his own responsibility. In view of the fact that so much opposition has developed against the amnesty bill, it is doubtful whether such a measure can pass.

The Warm Wave.

New York, July 13.—Hard showers this morning failed to check the four days' heat wave, which has settled down over New York, bringing death and prostrations by the score. Three deaths were reported before ten o'clock, while the hospitals were doing all they could to handle prostrations. The humidity, which has caused most of the trouble, was even greater today than yesterday. The humidity at eight o'clock was 86, which was a degree higher than at the same hour yesterday. There is no relief in prospect.

Boston, July 13.—There was no diminution in the hot wave this morning. The most that could be said, in extenuation of the weather, was that the humidity was normal. The thermometer started in to race for the top of the glass at sunrise, and at noon the temperature here was 90. So long as the wind holds in the west, there is little relief in sight.

Depew and the Equitable.

New York, July 13.—Chairman Paul Morton of the Equitable Life Assurance Society was asked today whether or not Chauncey M. Depew has placed his resignation, as a director of the society in his hand before sailing for Europe, and had agreed to surrender his retainer of $20,000 which he has been receiving from the Equitable. Mr. Morton was asked to either affirm or deny the report.

"I think Mr. Depew is mistaken," was Chairman Morton's answer to this question. "Before his departure for Europe, he signified to me that if the society wished to abolish his retainer and desired to accept his resignation, it would be agreeable to him. No formal written resignation was tendered by him, however."

"Then you do not intend to ask Senator Depew to resign?" Mr. Morton replied: "I am not prepared to say that."

The Elks.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 13.—Thousands of Elks who have been attending the annual reunion here, departed for their homes this morning. There will be sessions of the grand lodge today and tomorrow and then the Buffalo reunion will have ended. Denver won hands down in the contest over securing the reunion in 1906, having 694 votes against 232 for Dallas, Texas. Last night rowdies took advantage of the liberties extended to the Elks, and the throngs in the streets, especially the women, became terror stricken and rushed to their homes. The police finally took action, and order was partially restored. Excursions were given those of the Elks who remained today, as a result of which only the decorations and the grand lodge were in evidence. The awarding of prizes for the best appearing delegation in the parade and the most elaborate decorations of business houses will be made today.

Movement to Remove Depew.

New Haven, Conn., July 13.—The move reported on foot among Yale alumni to secure the removal of Senator Chauncey M. Depew from the Yale corporation, or to work against his re-election, when his term ends next June, received considerable impetus from the editorials of a local paper, of which Col. N. G. Osborne, a prominent Yale man, is the editor. The movement has caused much discussion among Yale men in this city, but so far as known no definite action has been taken. President Hadley, of Yale, when asked if any action was likely, or if he would say anything on the subject, said the questions to him were natural and legitimate, but he did not consider that it was becoming for him to answer them or discuss the matter. Other members of the Yale corporation who were approached voiced the same sentiments.

Those Wrinkles.

New York, July 13.—Dr. Andrew L. Nelden who is supposed by some to be able to graft fingers and noses and to add to the sum total of human beauty, was arraigned in the Tombs police court today charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. The complainant was Mrs. Josephine Ware, of Denver, whose wrinkles the prisoner did not smooth away.

Dr. Nelden, she declared, guaranteed to rid her of the wrinkles in two weeks, but at the end of six weeks she still had the wrinkles and in addition her face was badly scarred. She had in the meantime, according to her complaint, paid Nelden about $1,000. Nelden according to the report has accumulated a fortune of $100,000 out of the facial beauty practice. His case was postponed in court until Monday.

Body Identified.

Wilmington, Del., July 13.—Dr. D. A. Rosenthal, of Philadelphia, this morning identified the body of the man who was burned to death here yesterday, as Morris Littman, of No. 109 North Sixth street, Philadelphia. Dr. F. Rosenthal identified the man by his teeth and hair. The police believe the man poured the coal oil on himself, and then applied the match. The body was burned in parts to a crisp. Littman on Tuesday night gave his jewelry to his daughter and wife.

Wedding.

Boston, July 13.—Miss Annie Marie Saxton, daughter of Mrs. Laura T. Saxton, of Philadelphia, was married yesterday to Frank Stanwood Willard, a prominent merchant, of Portland, Maine. The ceremony was performed in the chapel of Trinity Church, by the Rev. Edward S. Travers, assistant rector. The bride and groom were unattended. Miss Saxton was given in marriage by her mother.

Reforms in Macedonia.

Constantinople, July 13.—The Sultan has given his reply to the suggestions of the powers for additional reforms in Macedonia, whereby it was proposed to strengthen the international control of the gendarme and has decided to agree to the proposals which have been made.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 13.—Stock market transactions were influenced during the first hour by belief and doubt of the reported sale of Union Pacific's holdings of Northern Pacific and Great Northern to a syndicate formed by J. J. Hill. The buying of the Hill-Harriman stocks appeared to be for the closest inside accounts. It is absolutely certain that the heavy purchases yesterday on which the market advanced so sharply was on information received by the buyers that the Union Pacific holdings had been sold to the Hill syndicate. The market generally was strong and higher.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Reports received from the various sections of the cotton-growing area of Egypt show that the crop will be excellent.

The New York World's statistician, finds that Thomas F. Ryan is the real financier of the country and that the value of the stock he controls in his various enterprises is more than one half the public debt of the United States, which is $2,304,697,418.

Prof. L. E. Maginnis, of Steelton, was elected professor of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association at the final session of its convention at Reading, today, and Dr. J. P. McCaskey, of Lancaster, was re-elected secretary. Next years' convention will be held at Altoona.

Would Not Let Him Go.

Champagne bottles were broken, plates flew about and a bottle of fine catsup was was spilled in the Metropole Hotel restaurant in New York yesterday afternoon during a fight between William Finkenstern, of Seneca, N. Y., who came to New York, he says, in search of a wife, and Eva Finkelstone. Broadway was greatly shaken by the fight.

The couple had been seated at a table and had ordered a meal. They seemed to be on peaceful terms when they entered, but in a few moments the woman's voice was heard rising angrily. Almost immediately she threw plate of croquettes and peas into Mr. Finkenstern's face. She followed this up with other plates, ending by throwing a light mantle she had over his head and then beating him with a champagne bottle. The man beat a retreat, but she caught him at the door and threw the contents of a bottle of catsup over him. When Finkenstern finally got into the street his face and clothing were dripping with the red liquid. He ran into the arms of Policeman O'Flaherty.

"Man, are you stabbed?" yelled the policeman.

"No," gasped Finkenstern. "It was the woman. There she comes."

Eva had broken away from some waiters who tried to detain her, and, rushing to the policeman's side, she began belaboring Finkenstern with her parasol.

"Leave me, will you?" she screamed. "Go back to the country, will you?" and the blows came faster and faster.

O'Flaherty finally arrested the woman and took her and Finkenstern to the west Thirtieth street station. She was held on a charge of assault.

Finkenstern said: "My father died a year or so ago and left me quite a little money. I decided to get married, and liked the looks of the New York girls I saw in the magazines and papers. I thought I would like one of them for a wife. Coming here, I met Miss Finkelstone and liked her. We would have got along all right had not her relatives made so much trouble. I felt as though I was about to marry the whole family, so I decided that a country girl would do for me and was going home today. I told Eva this in the restaurant and she resented it."

Hagerstown Curfew Law.

The City Council of Hagerstown Md., unanimously passed a curfew law last night. It was advocated by the Hagerstown Ministerial Union, and Rev. Dr. S. W. Owen and F. L. Fraser, a committee from the union, personally appeared before the Council and pleaded for its passage. It is stated Mayor Strite will approve the measure. Under the curfew law all children under the age of 15 years must stay off the street after 10 p. m. in summer and 9 p. m. in winter, unless in the performance of some errand or in company with parents or guardians or returning from church or any lawful meeting. Provision is made for the tapping three times of the fire-alarm bell at 8:45 p. m. in winter and 9:45 p. m. in summer as a warning for all children to get off the streets. Policemen are required to take home all children under 15 years found on the street after the prohibited time and warn the parents. If a child is found on the street a second time the parent is subject to a fine of $1 and costs; for the third offense $3 and costs; for all subsequent offenses from $5 to $15 and costs.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section showers tonight. Friday showers, followed by fair in the afternoon or at night; fresh south to west winds.

Assaulted by a Soldier.

J. O'Brien, alias Jos. Ramey, a soldier, caused some excitement on King street, near Pitt, last night by indulging in disorderly conduct, and when Officer Young approached him and warned him of the consequences of disturbing the peace he became defiant. He was taken into custody and as the officer started away with him the prisoner struck Mr. Young in the face. The latter retained his hold on the man and placed him in the station house. The incident attracted a large crowd which followed the officer and his prisoner to the lockup. O'Brien was brought before the Police Court this morning when Justice Caton fined him $10.

Copious Rains.

There was a succession of heavy rains yesterday, which was resumed at an early hour this morning and continued at intervals later in the day. The temperature fell somewhat, although the atmosphere is still humid and at times uncomfortable. Showers fell yesterday in the Atlantic coast district, throughout which the ocean winds came from the southeast. The officials of the Weather Bureau hold out no promise of a decided change in the weather for the next few days. In the west the temperature is rising, and no relief is looked for from that quarter. The maximum temperature reached yesterday was 90 degrees, and at 10 o'clock last night the thermometer registered 72 degrees.

Patents Granted.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant this week to citizens of this State of the following patents: Eben Locker, of Locker, for a shoe heel; John Cahill, of Norfolk, for shutter or closure; Addie Irby, of Vernonhill, for corkscrew and spoon holder; T. S. Rouse, of Alexandria, for a compressed-air-operated brick machine; S. C. Shaw, of Norfolk, for music leaf turner; J. K. S. Farris, of Saltville, for artificial leg; C. M. Tipton, of Rapidan, for a spring wheel. Also trade marks as follows: The Gwaltmey-Bunkley Co., Smithville, for peanuts; John E. Fowler, of Richmond, for flavoring extracts; Louis Lazarus, of Lynchburg, for whisky.

Looking for Ferry-boat.

Mr. John Callahan, manager of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, is in New York looking for a ferry-boat to use on the line to be established between this city and Washington prior to the running of the regular boats, which will start some time in September. If a proper boat can be found, it will be run between the two points as soon as it can be brought here. When the two new boats arrive it will be used as an auxiliary and substitute boat. Mr. Callahan is expected to return tomorrow.

Personal.

Mrs. J. T. Jennings, of Lynchburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. Fisher, at 110 south Columbus street.

Miss Lottie Martin has returned home from a pleasant visit to Misses Lena and Sallie Patterson, at their home, in Fairfax county.

Mrs. D. R. Stansbury has returned home after a visit to her brother, Dr. J. Garnett King, in Fredericksburg.

Officer Mayhugh has been confined to his home for the past week by illness.

Sunday School Excursion.

The Baptist and Methodist Sunday schools of the St. Elmo and Del Ray neighborhoods went on an excursion yesterday to Colonial Beach. A number of scholars, teachers and their friends composed the party, and they all returned well pleased with their experience. The excursionists arrived here shortly before midnight on the steamer T. V. Arrowsmith. A special train was waiting for them at the corner of Prince and Fairfax streets.

Union Excursion.

The Union Sunday School excursion to River View will take place tomorrow. These excursions have always been liberally patronized, and many have signified their intention of availing themselves of the opportunity which will be afforded tomorrow of enjoying the ride to and from River View, as well as spending some time at this resort. For the accommodation of families there will be an eight o'clock boat from River View.

War on Idlers.

The recent action of the police in notifying idle negroes on north Fayette street and other points in that vicinity that they would not be allowed to loiter in front of certain places has had its effect, and that neighborhood was decidedly quiet this morning. It is said that the notification of the polibe has caused a number of negroes to shake the dust of the city from their feet and depart for other localities.

Half-price Sale.

Mr. R. Lee Field advertises today a special half-price sale of clothing and other goods in his line. This is an old-established house and the stock contained therein is alway large and varied. Those in want of furnishing goods of all descriptions can find the same at this store at the most reasonable prices.

Washouts.

The heavy rains which have prevailed in this city and vicinity during the past twenty-four hours have caused more or less damage to railroads entering this city. There have been a number of washouts, but the roads were repaired immediately and the running of trains has not been materially interfered with.

Bills Paid.

All the bills for the paving of Prince street between Fairfax and Lee, and on Lee street between Prince and Duke have been paid and the work of paving these two squares with vitrified brick will be commenced as soon as the material can be secured.

The mercury at noon registered 86° while the humidity continues intense.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

H. V. Kelly, arrested by Officers Beach, Allen and Lyles charged with selling liquor without a license had his case continued until the 18th instant.

Carrie Brown, colored, arrested by Officer Beach charged with escaping from the work house had ten days added to her sentence.

Aaron Jackson and Carlyle Murray, both colored, arrested by Officer Bell charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $5 each.

Augustus Hortz, arrested by Officer Sherwood charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

J. O'Brien, alias Jos. Ramey, arrested by Officer Young charged with disorderly conduct and with assaulting the officer, was fined $10.

A woman, arrested by Officer Bell charged with abusive language toward another woman, was dismissed.

James Edmonds, colored, arrested by Officers Arrington and Knight charged with assaulting Willis Thompson, was fined $5.

U. S. Court.

[Judge Edmund Waddill presiding.]

Judge Edmund Waddill was in the city for a short time this evening and after issuing a few orders and transacting some routine business of no general interest, adjourned his court till October 30.

Third Ward Commissioner.

Let us hope that when the City Council fills the Third ward vacancy on the Police Board that they will not overlook Mr. Worth Hulfish. No doubt he will make an efficient member, as at a recent meeting of the board he offered many suggestions to improve the police force. He told the Mayor to be a policeman some night, showed the Commissioners their errors, etc. Let us have Mr. Hulfish for a change. At this critical time he would be the proper man. CITIZEN.

The Government Printing Office.

President Roosevelt has decided that there shall be a new public printer, and he is already selecting Mr. Palmer's successor. He has already offered the place to two men. One of these was John A. Sleicher, of New York, editor-in-chief of Leslie's Weekly. Neither of the men the President selected were able to accept. Accordingly he postponed further action till he could find some competent man who has the requirements he is demanding for the office.

One of the chief indictments brought against the present printery management is lavish expenditure of money. A gentleman familiar with conditions there recently observed that the expenditure in the government printing office could be reduced to $1,000,000 annually without at all impairing the efficiency of the service. When this statement was repeated recently to a member of the Cabinet in a position to know the methods prevalent there, he said laconically, "a great deal more than that." The Keep commission is showing no dispostion for the present to inquire into anything but the Lanston contract. Apparently the commission has no authority to do so from the President. Nevertheless, it is confidently believed that it is only a question of time when the government printing office must be investigated thoroughly from top to bottom and new methods inaugurated for the conduct of its enormous business.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five minutes I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy it for sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Three Good and Just Reasons.

RUSSIAN AFFAIRS.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that M. Muravieff has resigned his position as chief peace plenipotentiary. It may be regarded as practically certain that he will be replaced by M. Witte, president of the committee of ministers, who all along has been considered the Russian statesman pre-eminently qualified to undertake the difficult task of negotiating peace with Japan.

Though the Emperor on two previous occasions has flatly declined to accept M. Witte, he has now indicated his readiness to make the appointment. The commission, which, however, will not be actually signed until Foreign Minister Lamsdorff, who throughout has been M. Witte's warm supporter, has had an audience of the Emperor. To that extent only the matter may be regarded as unsettled, nothing being certain in Russia, as a prominent diplomat remarked Wednesday night, until the Emperor's signature has been affixed.

M. Witte's selection undoubtedly will be hailed as a practical assurance of peace. While it would be a mistake to denominate him as a "peace-at any-price" man, M. Witte earnestly believes that the struggle should be ended and should be succeeded by an understanding between Russia and Japan which would insure peace in the far East for half a century. Indeed, he is personally believed to be in favor of a Russo-Japanese alliance. The conduct of the negotiations by M. Witte, it is felt by the Russian peace party, would inspire instant confidence in Japan.

The Czar will go to Moscow, it is reported, and will from there issue the call for representatives of the people to assemble. Admiral Kruger will leave the service on account of his conduct in dealing with the Kniaz Potemkin mutineers.

The Drowning Mystery.

Three lives were lost by the sinking of the steam yacht Normandie, which was run down Monday night in the Hudson river off Dobbs Ferry by the Norwegian tramp steamer Volund. Those who perished were Miss Gladys Dodge, of New York, a guest aboard the yacht; the captain, William Storm, of Hyde Park, New York, and the engineer, Stuart Gracie, of Brooklyn. Their bodies were not recovered.

John A. Rudd, who chartered the yacht, called on the police and made the following statement regarding the accident:

"I chartered the steam yacht Normandie from Mr. C. W. Dimont, the owner, for the month of July. On Thursday I took a guest, Mr. J. E. Green, of New York city, and his niece for a day's cruise up the river. We went as far as Peekskill. On the downward trip, opposite Cobbs' Ferry, we were run into by a tramp steamer. I think the name of the steamer was the Volund. The Normandie immediately sank. On board were William Storm, of Hyde Park, N. Y., the engineer; Mr. Gracie, of Brooklyn, the pilot; Joe Hannagan, of Yonkers, the deck hand; J. E. Green, of New York, and his niece, Miss Daisy Dodge, and myself. As far as I know, the pilot, Gracie, the young lady, and the engineer were drowned.'

Jr. O. U. A. M.

The clerk of Court of Appeals of Virginia has certified to the United States Supreme Court the record in the case of the National Council Junior Order of United American Mechanics against the State council of the same order. This case grows out of the secession of many Virginia members of the order from the national body and the establishment by charter of the State council. The national council seeks to restrain the State council from the use of the name of the order and to coerce the seceders into again affiliating with the national body.

The case was fought through the courts of this State, being decided favorably to the State council. The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia sustained the lower court in this decision. Yesterday's action means that the dispute is to be carried through the highest legal tribunal in this country.

Sleeping Plants.

Plants sleep much the same as animals. Their sleep is quite real, and its reality can be shown. Perhaps the best marked form of slumber in the vegetable world is that of the great winter rest, when so many species retire altogether under the sheltering soil and there lie dormant side by side with the slumbering animals. How does the long winter rest of animals differ, after all, from the winter rest of the crocus and the hyacinth, which withdraw all the living material from their leaves in autumn and bury themselves inches deep in the soil in the shape of a bulb till February rains or April suns tempt leaves and flowers out again? The whole vast class of bulbous and tuberous plants, indeed—the lilies, orchids, daffodils, narcissi, tulips, squills, bluebells and snowdrops—are they not just hibernating creatures which retire underground in autumn with the slugs and the queen wasps, to reappear in spring about the same time with the return to upper air of the moles, the tortoises and the fritillary butterflies?

Peculiarities of Ferrets.

Ferrets are usually rather shy and sometimes are very cross and bad tempered. If they take a fancy to people they are like squirrels and can be caressed and made much of and enjoy it very greatly. Ferrets were originally brought from England. They are of great value to clear premises of rats. When not hunting the ferrets should be kept in a dry box or pen, with the top off, the depth to be about three feet, the bottom filled in with sawdust or earth. The rat is the natural prey and the favorite food of the ferret. When there are no more rats raw meat is the very best thing to feed, although bread and milk or any other food, with the exception of salt meat, can be given them, together with milk and water, the same as to cats. At first the ferret should be handled by the tail or back of the neck, the latter being the preferred way. A strange ferret should never be handled from the front, as he may bite.

Our Digestive Apparatus.

If men were designed to live on one particular standard diet, such as each food faddist thinks he has discovered, they would have a simple, straightforward digestive apparatus, calculated to deal with such a diet without undue complexity or "overlapping." On the contrary, our digestive apparatus is like our teeth, characteristically omnivorous. Pepsin is only one of at least a dozen different ferments, some of which can only act in alkaline medium, others only in an acid medium, others only in the presence of such and such a body, others only in its absence. This extraordinary, complex apparatus was not constructed to provide problems for physiologists or to consume superfluous vital energy. Its plain meaning—if people were on the lookout for meanings—is that the more complex, adaptable and varied the apparatus the fitter is its owner to survive in all dietetic emergencies.—Pall Mall Gazette.

The Student's Explanation.

A notably amusing answer was given by a student in the natural philosophy class at Edinburgh university.

Professor Tait had given as one of the questions in an examination paper, "Define transparent, translucent and opaque," which was dealt with by the student thus: "I cannot precisely define these terms, but I can indicate their meaning in this way: The windows of this classroom were once transparent, they are now translucent and if not cleaned very soon will be opaque."

The answer gained full marks from the amused professor.—Wesminster Gazette.

The German Bride.

As soon as a German girl is engaged she is called "bride" by her lover, who continues to call her so until she becomes his wife. Immediately on betrothal the lovers exchange rings, which are intended to be worn by both for the rest of their lives. The woman wears her ring on her left hand during her engagement and on her right afterward. The man continues to wear his as his wife did when she was a "bride," and thus one can tell at a glance whether a man be free to marry or not.

Rembrandt a Unique Figure.

The sudden uprising of art in Holland produced in the person of Rembrandt one of the foremost artists of the world. He is one of the few great original men who stand alone. You cannot trace his genius to the influence of his time or to the work of other men who preceded him, and, although he had followers, none of them could do what he did. He shines out in solitary bigness like a Shakespeare or Beethoven or Michael Angelo.—St. Nicholas.

His High Hope.

The ambitious young merchant caressed the shapely hand of the heiress.

"Dear little hand!" he murmured absentmindedly. "So delicate! So fragile! And yet I hope some day to see it lift the heavy mortgage that's on my store!"—Chicago Tribune.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. This being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Grim Tragedy

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes, as Death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But when Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley, of Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Cold which cured her, and to-day she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guranteed at 50c and $1.00 by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist. Try them today.

Did His Best.

She—After six weeks of married life, Arthur, I have reached the sad certainty that you do not love me. Arthur—My dear! She—It's no use protesting. You should have married some credulous, stupid girl! Arthur—Well, darling, I did my very best.

Just a Loan.

"Don't beg; the world owes you a living," said the prosperous citizen to the mendicant. But he was staggered by the reply:

"All right, sir; lend me a trifle till it pays up."—New York Herald.

His Anxious Query.

Young Wife—I don't like that cooking school teacher at all. She has neither patience nor consideration. She's actually cruel! Husband—Great snakes! She doesn't really make you eat the things, does she?

True goodness is like the glowworm in this, that it shines most when no eyes except heaven are upon it.—Hare.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Indigestion Cured.

There is no case of indigestion, Dyspepsia or Stomach Trouble that will not yield to the digestive and strengthening influence of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. This remedy takes the strain off the stomach by digesting what you eat and allowing it to rest until it grows strong again. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure affords quick and permanent relief from Indigestion and all stomach troubles, builds up the system and so purifies that disease can not attack and gain a foothold as when in a weakened condition. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick streets.

The Only Way to Cure.

To cure a cold when you have no cough—to cure a cough when you have no cold—to cure yourself when you have both—take Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. The new idea, the original Laxative Cough Syrup. It contains no opiates and is best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Pleasant to the taste and equally good for child or adult. Remember the name, "Kennedy's," and see that the red clover blossom and the honey bee is on the bottle. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar is the original Laxative Cough Syrup. Take no other. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner of Queen and Patrick street.
